than Annual General Meetings) a meeting may be convened by such notice as those Members and Associate Members may think fit.

31. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to (or the non-receipt of such notice by) any person entitled to receive notice thereof, shall not invalidate any resolution passed, or proceedings taking place at such meeting.

32. Subject to these Articles all Members and Associate Members shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend by their Registered Principal or Registered Principals at General Meetings. Each notice sent to a Member shall be accompanied by a proxy form for use at the Meeting.

33. The following kinds of business shall be deemed to be special business:-

- (i) All business transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (ii) All business transacted at an Annual General Meeting with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet and the reports of the Council and of the Auditors, the election of members of the Council, and the fixing of the remuneration of Auditors.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

34. At every Annual General Meeting the Association shall:-

- (i) consider the accounts and balance sheet of the Association, the report of the Auditors of the Association and reports laid before it by the Council;

- (ii) appoint an Auditor or Auditors in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance governing such appointments.

35. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business and continues to be present until the conclusion of the meeting. Save as herein otherwise provided, a quorum shall be ten Registered Principals present in person representing at least ten Members.

36. If, within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting, a quorum is not present, the Meeting (if convened on the requisition of Members) shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or at such other place as the Council shall appoint and, if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Registered Principals present shall be a quorum.

37. The Chairman of the Association shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting but, when in his absence, Vice Chairman shall preside as chairman of the said General Meeting. If there shall be no Chairman or Vice-chairman of the Association, or if at any Meeting he shall not be present within 15 (fifteen) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the Registered Principals representing Members present shall choose some member of the Council, or if no such member be present, or if all the members of the Council present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some Registered Principal representing a Member who shall be present to preside as Chairman.

38. The Chairman of the Meeting may, with the consent of any Meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the Meeting), adjourn a Meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a Meeting is adjourned for 30 (thirty) days or more, notice of the adjourned Meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original Meeting. Save as aforesaid, the Members and Associate Members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned Meeting.

39. At all General Meetings, a resolution put to the vote of the Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands of Registered Principals representing Members, unless a poll is demanded –

- (i) by the Chairman; or
- (ii) by at least 5 Voting Members present in person or by proxy; or
- (iii) by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy representing at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the Voting Members having the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or otherwise on majority on a show of hands shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

40. Subject to the provisions of Article 42, if a poll be demanded in the manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Chairman of the Meeting shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Meeting at which the poll was demanded.

41. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of a Meeting, or on any question of adjournment.

42. In the case of an equality of votes (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) the Chairman of the Meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

43. Any Member entitled to be present and vote at a Meeting may submit any resolution to any General Meeting provided that at least 6 (six) weeks before the day appointed for the Meeting he shall have served upon the Association a notice in writing signed by him containing the proposed resolution and stating his intention to submit the same.

44. Upon receipt of any such notice as mentioned in the last preceding Article, the Honorary Secretary shall include in the notice of the Meeting notice that such resolution will be proposed.

45. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded or of any business the transaction whereof is dependent upon the outcome of any such poll.

46. On a vote by a show of hands a Registered Principal representing a Member may cast one vote only on behalf of one Member notwithstanding that he may be a Registered Principal of more than one Member.

47. On a vote by a poll, votes may be cast as follows:

- (a) in person by a Registered Principal on behalf of one Member only; and
- (b) by proxy.

48. A person who is a Registered Principal of more than one Member who wishes to cast a vote on behalf of that other Member or those other Members may only do so as a proxy.

49. No Member shall be entitled to be represented at nor vote on any question at any General Meeting unless every subscription and other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association in respect of the Member has been paid.

50. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

51. The proxy shall be a Registered Principal whether or not that Registered Principal has been registered in respect of that or another Member.

52. Where the Council wishes to afford Members an opportunity of instructing the proxy how he shall vote, the instrument appointing the proxy shall be as set out at Form B1 and where the Council does not wish to afford Members such an opportunity, the instrument appointing the proxy shall be as set out at Form B2. In both cases the Forms may be as near to the Forms set out as circumstances allow or in any other form which is usual or which the Council may approve.

53. The instrument appointing a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of such authority certified or in some other way approved by the Council may be deposited at the office or at such other place within Hong Kong as is specified in the notice convening the Meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Association in relation to the Meeting not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the Member named in the instrument proposes to vote and an instrument of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in the manner so permitted shall be invalid.

THE COUNCIL

As amended up to 28th September 2016

54. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Council which shall consist of 12 (twelve) Registered Principals representing Members.

55. Not more than one Registered Principal of the same Member may be a member of the Council at any one time.

56. After the Annual General Meeting, the Council may, should the composition of the Council be such that it is unrepresentative of a particular interest of the Association, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, be entitled to add to the Council's number by co-opting as additional members of the Council any Registered Principals representing Members not exceeding 2 (two) in number. Persons so co-opted shall retire at the end of the year of office of the Council by whom they were co-opted, but shall be eligible for further co-option, up to a maximum of 4 (four) consecutive years.

57. The persons who immediately prior to the adoption of these Articles were members of the Council of the Association provided they remain eligible as Registered Principals shall be the members of the Council from the adoption of these Articles and shall be deemed to have been elected thereto on the dates on which they became respectively members of the said Council.

CHAIRMAN, HONORARY SECRETARY & HONORARY TREASURER

58. (1) Subject to the provisions of Article 80 at their meeting to be held from time to time after every Annual General Meeting of the Association, the Council shall elect one of their members:

- a) to hold office as Chairman of the Association;

- b) to hold office as Vice-chairman of the Association;
- c) to hold office as Honorary Secretary of the Association; and
- d) to hold office as Honorary Treasurer of the Association;

until their successors shall have been elected at any meeting of the Council to be held from time to time after the next Annual General Meeting of the Association.

- (2) If a casual vacancy arises at any time in any of the aforesaid offices, it shall be filled by the appointment by the Council of one of their number, and the member so appointed shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected at any meeting of the Council to be held from time to time after the next Annual General Meeting of the Association. If the Association has dispensed with the holding of Annual General Meetings or is not required to hold Annual General Meetings, the members of the Council must retire from office before the end of 9 months after the end of the Association's accounting reference period by reference to which the financial year in which the members of the Council were appointed is to be determined.
- (3) A retiring Chairman shall be eligible for re-election provided that he does not hold office for more than 5 (five) years in succession.
- (4) The persons who were respectively (at the date of the adoption of these Articles) Chairman, Vice-chairman, Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer of the Council of the Association shall be the Chairman, Vice-chairman, Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer of the Council of the Association until their successors have been elected at any meeting of the Council to be held from time to time after the Annual General Meeting of the Association which occurs next after the date of such adoption.

POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

59. The Council may exercise all such powers of the Association and do on behalf of the Association all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Association, and as are not by the provisions of the Ordinance or by these Articles required to be exercised or done by the Association in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to the provisions of these Articles and of the Ordinance, and to such regulations (being not inconsistent with the aforesaid provisions) as may be prescribed by the Association in General Meeting, but no regulation made by the Association in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

60. The members for the time being of the Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body - provided always that in case the members of the Council shall at any time be reduced in number to less than 4 (four), it shall be lawful for them to act as the Council for the purpose of filling up vacancies in their body, or of summoning a General Meeting, but not for any other purpose.

61. All moneys, cheques, bills and notes belonging to the Association shall be paid to or deposited with the Association's bankers to an account opened in the name of the Association. Cheques on the Association's bankers, until otherwise from time to time resolved upon by the Council, shall be signed by any 2 (two) of the office bearers named under Article 58(1). The Association's banking account shall be kept with such banker or bankers as the Council shall from time to time determine.

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

62. The office of a member of the Council shall be vacated.
- (a) If he ceases to be a Registered Principal;
 - (b) If by notice in writing to the Association he resigns his office;
 - (c) If he ceases to hold office by reason of any order made under the Ordinance or the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (Cap.32) or is prohibited from being a director by law;
 - (d) If he is removed from office by an Ordinary Resolution passed at a duly convened General Meeting of the Association;
 - (e) If he fails to attend at least 3 (three) of any 12 (twelve) consecutive Meetings of the Council unless he has obtained from the Council leave of absence owing to absence abroad, illness or other sufficient reason.

ELECTION & ROTATION OF MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

63. Three of the members of the Council shall retire annually and no retiring member of the Council other than one elected to fill a casual vacancy shall be eligible for re-election until the expiration of one year from the expiration of his term of office, but the Council may, if they think fit, re-elect as a member of the Council a retiring Chairman of the Association for a further period not exceeding 1 (one) year and the number of members of the Council for the time being shall be increased accordingly. In the event that the number of Council members in any year is less than twelve (excluding co-opted Members) the number retiring shall be reduced accordingly.

64. The 3 (three) members of the Council to retire as aforesaid (excluding Chairman and Vice-chairman) shall be those who have been longest continuously in office as such but as between persons who become members of the Council on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree amongst themselves) be determined by lot. In any event, each member of the Council shall have a maximum term of office of no more than 5 (five) consecutive years in succession.

65. A declaration of the election of all new members of the Council shall be made at the Annual General Meeting and such new members shall take office immediately after such meeting.

66. Not less than 8 (eight) weeks before the Annual General Meeting the Honorary Secretary shall send to each Member of the Association a list of the Council, distinguishing the names of those retiring, and forms of nomination of Registered Principals representing Members to take the place of those retiring members.

67. Every Member may nominate not more than 2 (two) Registered Principals representing Members for election as members of the Council recognising that only one may be elected (Article 55), and shall enter the nominations on the forms for the purpose sent as mentioned in the preceding Article. Such forms must be signed by the Registered Principal representing a Member nominating and by another Registered Principal seconding the nomination and the forms so signed must be delivered to the Honorary Secretary not less than 5 (five) weeks before the date of the Annual General Meeting at which the election of the Council is to be declared, together with a statement from the Registered Principal nominated that he accepts nomination and will serve if elected.

68. The Honorary Secretary shall send to each Member of the Association a complete list of such nominations on ballot paper forms at least 3 (three) weeks before the date of the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to be declared; and each Member may mark on each ballot paper an "X" against the names of each of the persons for whom he wishes to vote but not exceeding 1 (one) for each Council vacancy to be filled and shall send such ballot papers so marked in a sealed envelope to the Honorary Secretary so that the same may be received by the Honorary Secretary at least 1 (one) week before the time fixed for such Annual General Meeting. Any ballot paper bearing more or less than the prescribed number of names marked shall be void.

69. The Council shall appoint from amongst the Registered Principals representing Members (who are not on the list of nominations) 2 (two) Registered Principals to act as Scrutineers, who shall on the morning of and prior to the Annual General Meeting open the ballot papers and count the votes, and those Registered Principals who receive the most votes shall at the Annual General Meeting be declared duly elected to the vacancies to be filled. In the event of an equality of votes the names of such Registered Principals as have an equal number of votes shall be submitted to a ballot of the Registered Principals representing Members present at the Annual General Meeting, and the election shall be determined accordingly and not solely by the casting vote of the Chairman of the Meeting.

70. Any casual vacancy in the Council may be filled by the Council, but the member of the Council appointed to fill such vacancy shall retire from office on the date on which the member of the Council, whose place is so filled, would in the ordinary way have retired.

71. Subject to the provisions of Article 30 as to the giving of notice of special business, the Association may from time to time in General Meeting increase or reduce the number of members of the Council and determine in what rotation such increased or reduced numbers shall go out of office, and make any consequential alterations in the provisions of these Articles as to the manner of election of members of the Council.

72. In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of the Ordinance, the Association may by Ordinary Resolution remove any member of the Council before the expiration of his period of office and may by an Ordinary Resolution appoint another member of the Council in his stead but any person so appointed shall retain his office so long only as the member of the Council in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL

73. (a) The Council may frame such rules for the conduct of their business, including the determination of the place and time of meetings of the Council and for the giving of notice thereof as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the Ordinance and of these Articles.
- (b) The quorum at meetings of the Council shall be 4 (four) members who shall be present at the time the meeting proceeds to business and continue to be present until the conclusion of the meeting.
- (c) Voting at meetings of the Council shall be by show of hands and every member of the Council shall have 1 (one) vote; in the event of an equality of votes the Chairman of the Meeting shall have an additional or casting vote.

- (d) A member of the Council may, and on the request of a member of the Council or of any 5 (five) Members of the Association the Honorary Secretary shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Council by notice served upon the several members of the Council.
- (e) A member of the Council will be deemed to have received notice of any Council meeting notwithstanding that he may be absent from Hong Kong at the time when the notice is served.

74. The Chairman of the Association shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the Council but when in his absence, the Vice-chairman shall preside as the chairman of the meeting of the Council. If there shall be no Chairman or Vice-chairman of the Council or, if at any meeting both of them shall not be present within 5 (five) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or shall be unwilling to preside, the members of the Council present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

75. A meeting of the Council at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions by or under these Articles for the time being vested in the Council generally.

76. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth the Council may appoint standing or ad hoc committees to assist in the management of the affairs of the Association. Any such standing or ad hoc committee shall:-

- (i) Not be empowered to act other than in an advisory capacity to the Council.

- (ii) In the execution of the powers so delegated conform to its formal terms of reference and to any regulations imposed on it by the Council.
 - (iii) Conduct its Meeting and proceedings in the manner provided by these Articles for regulating Meetings and proceedings of the Council so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Council as aforesaid.
- (b) The composition of any standing or ad hoc committee shall be at the discretion of the Council and for the removal of doubt may comprise either members of the Council exclusively, Registered principals representing Members exclusively or both members of the Council and Registered Principals representing Members.

77. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Council or of any committee of the Council or by any person acting as a member of the Council shall (notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such member or person acting as aforesaid; or that they or any of them were disqualified) be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a member of the Council.

78. The Council shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by the Council and of the proceedings of all Meetings of the Association and of the Council and of Committees of the Council and all business transacted at such Meetings, and any such minutes of any Meeting, if purported to be signed by the Chairman of such Meeting or by the Chairman of the next succeeding Meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

79. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being of the Council or of any Committee of the Council who are duly entitled to receive notice of a Meeting of the Council or of such Committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Council or of such Committee duly convened and constituted.

80. In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of Article 58(1)(c) the Council may appoint a professional Secretary for such time, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them. In the event of such appointment being made, the Council may decide whether or not the office of Honorary Secretary shall continue and how the duties of that office shall be discharged.

81. The Council may provide a Common Seal of the Association and may make provision for the use of the same and for the safe custody thereof. The Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority given by resolution of the Council and in the presence of at least 2 (two) members of the Council who shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is affixed, and every such instrument shall be countersigned by the Honorary Secretary or some other person appointed by the Council and in favour of any purchaser or person bona fide dealing with the Association such signatures shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the Seal has been properly affixed.

85. At the Annual General Meeting in every year the Council shall lay before the Association a proper income and expenditure account for the period since the last preceding account together with a proper balance sheet made up to the same date as the date to which the income and expenditure account is made up.
